Let

"CARILLONIC BELLS"

illuminate honored names on a manuscript of music for all to hear

In every city, town and village, there are names newly wreathed with honor and heroism.

Let those names be heard in your community, let them be remembered as days turn into years, through the noble, glowing tones of "Carillonic Bells." Ringing in remembrance, "Carillonic Bells" speak, as no other tribute can — raise in cresting waves of music an abiding message of faith and commemoration.

Schulmerich "Carillonic Bells" are the proudest and finest choice for such a purpose. Their richness of tone, their clear modulations are unequalled — the supreme results of more than two decades of electronic engineering and research. Their construction is compact, they are convenient to install, requiring no additional structure — moderate in cost.

If you would like to commemorate with "Carillonic Bells" those beloved in your community, we shall be glad to send a brochure giving complete details.

Schulmerich products are sold only through direct factory representatives. For complete information, address Dept. CDE–1.

THE AMERICAN CHURCH INSTITUTE FOR NEGROES

THROUGH gifts from friends and an appropriation from the National Council, the Institute provides vocational education for Negroes in seven southern states. In addition to the vocational and technical training in the five schools, it aids in the support of St. Augustine's College, the Bishop Payne Divinity School, St. Agnes' Hospital, and Fort Valley College Center. One of the Institute's greatest needs is a progressive increase in its endowment.

Foreword

This edition of Stowe's Clerical Directory is the first since that of 1941. The Directory normally is issued triennially. First published in 1898, there have been in all fifteen editions. Because of the shortage of paper during the war years, the edition scheduled for 1944 had to be omitted. The necessary restrictions imposed on publishers by the War Production Board prevented. The editor in 1945 did, however, publish and distribute a supplement to the 1941 edition, the supplement covering the clergy ordained since publication of the 1941 book. Copies were distributed without charge to the 6,400 clergy and to other subscribers.

The current edition is the second under the editorship of The Church Hymnal Corporation, for The Church Pension Fund. The Fund must by its nature carry on its records the vital statistics of the clergy. Happily, handling these records and the accumulation of data from the clergy for the Directory in the same office is beneficial to both efforts.

The biographies of the living clergy appear on pages 1 to 345. The Necrology is found on pages 346 to 355 and a list of deprivations and depositions reported to the office after July 1, 1941 appears on page 356. As a new feature of this Directory, the editor has included biographies of the 159 Deaconesses of the Church, to be found on pages 357 to 362.

The Clerical Directory is an important publication. Its main value is as a reference book for use by the clergy, the parishes and the diocesan organizations. Also important is its historical value. The editor has taken all reasonable care in achieving accuracy. The cooperation of the clergy themselves in supplying the biographical data is very necessary to maintaining the standard of accuracy and inclusiveness. Some clergy choose not to answer requests for information. To this extent incompleteness exists. It is unfortunate. But for the most part the clergy have been remarkably cooperative.

HOBART and WILLIAM SMITH COLLEGES

GENEVA, NEW YORK

HOBART COLLEGE (for men) is the oldest college affiliated with the Episcopal Church in America. Approved by all principal accrediting agencies, Hobart offers young men a liberal education in the finest tradition of the Church. Undergraduate work leads to the Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) or to the Bachelor of Science (B.S.) degree. The college, founded in 1822 by the Rt. Rev. John Henry Hobart, Bishop of New York, grew out of Geneva Academy, established in 1796.

WILLIAM SMITH COLLEGE (for women), established in 1908, is an equal partner with Hobart in the Colleges of the Seneca, offers the same degrees for young women that Hobart offers for men, and shares the same faculty, library and laboratories. It is located on its own campus on a hill overlooking Seneca Lake.

"DR. JOHN EWING"—The two decades after the election of Dr. John Ewing, minister of the First Presbyterian Church and Provost of the College of Philadelphia, as President of the Fund in 1767, were most difficult. The Revolutionary War brought depreciated currency and the uncertainty of the entire economic structure. The Presbyterian Ministers' Fund emerged triumphantly from every other era of war financing in the history of America.

THIS FUND, which has withstood every economic crisis in our national life and has served the clergy generously and faithfully through more than 228 years recommends, out of its abundant experience with a minister's financial problems, life insurance as the most practical way to combat inflation and provide financial security in the Post-War World.

to lighten
a thousand hearts

As lovely to see as it is to hear, the Liberty carillon produces the realities of tons of great bells from the magic of only a few ounces of metal. Precision tuned and with a musical range from three to five octaves, it is played with all the artistic expression and effect of a fine carillon of cast bells.

And now Liberty Leadership has produced another amazing first — a two-octave instrument for limited budgets but with all the tonal beauty of "The Big Liberty". We cordially invite you to hear it at a resident service associate near you. Write for his address today, and plan now to have this magnificent Voice of the Cathedrals ringing from your church this Christmas.

NO "SACRED COWS"

✠ The Churchman has no "sacred cows." Its policy is frankly liberal — using the word in its exact sense. The paper reflects varied opinion in the Protestant Episcopal Church and outside of it. Its own point of view — with which many readers, being literate persons who think for themselves, frequently take issue — is expressed in its editorial columns. Such a free press is one of the most precious assets of the church and the social order.

✠ Published under the sponsorship of The Churchman Associates, it relies for its continued freedom and constructive contribution to an alert and progressive church upon the support of friends of progress.

Translated with a commentary
by
RONALD KNOX

Msgr. Knox's commentary will be found invaluable as a source of sermon material, for the light it throws on the difficulties facing a translator of Holy Scripture and for the careful comparison of the Latin and Greek renderings of obscure texts.

Of Msgr. Knox's translation of the New Testament Dr. Edgar J. Goodspeed said:

"It is a distinct and distinguished contribution to New Testament translation and interpretation."
